

Stepping Stones

Counting and writing

The Owls practised their counting and writing skills. Counting and matching the numbers to the little grey owls were followed by how to write the number 2. Curve up and around and then back down. Add a foot and that makes two! We first practised the writing on the whiteboard, waiting for our turn, before finishing off on our work sheets.