

Stepping Stones

Sensory tray exploring

The Pre-school group learned about the various habitats of some of the planets endangered animals. We looked at the elephant and giraffe, who live in the savannah, the snakes who calls the desert home, the penguins who live where it is cold and icy and the creatures from the deep blue sea. Feeling the different textures was a lot of fun!