

Stepping Stones Fish in a bottle

It is no secret that children love to play with water and the Playgroup enjoyed their water play activity. They coloured the water, dispersing the blue as they mixed the water with their hands. Carefully, the blue water was poured into bottles, adding a couple of glass beads they counted one by one. A fish or two completed the sensory bottle.